Examples of Award endorsement comment from other Duke 4Sport Partner Clubs:

“Our partnership with The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award aligns extremely well with the values of Rugby Union, and the proud history our sport has in developing people of strong character and leadership within our community. We believe the Award helps develop discipline, teamwork, communication and social skills, furthering those skills and others developed in rugby. By delivering the award to our young people, this partnership will help us deliver our mission to care, connect and unify our sport, by encouraging leadership and service amongst our rugby schools, clubs and communities”

Andrew Hore, CEO, NSW Rugby Union

“NSW Rugby League are proud to partner with The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award. The combined effort through sport within the framework of one of the world's leading youth programs is instrumental in producing the next generation of young leaders with the required skills in navigating life's challenges in today's world.”

David Trodden, CEO, NSW Rugby League

“Surf Life Saving NSW believes that the everyday actions of our members change lives, build stronger communities and create great Australians. We are committed to providing our members with skills and experiences which equip them not only to contribute to their clubs and communities, but also to develop personally and help them to realise their potential. With its focus on youth development and youth empowerment, the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is one of the tools that is assisting us to realise our goals for young people in the organisation. We are proud to be a Duke4Sport partner.”

Steven Pearce AFSM, CEO, Surf Life Saving NSW
